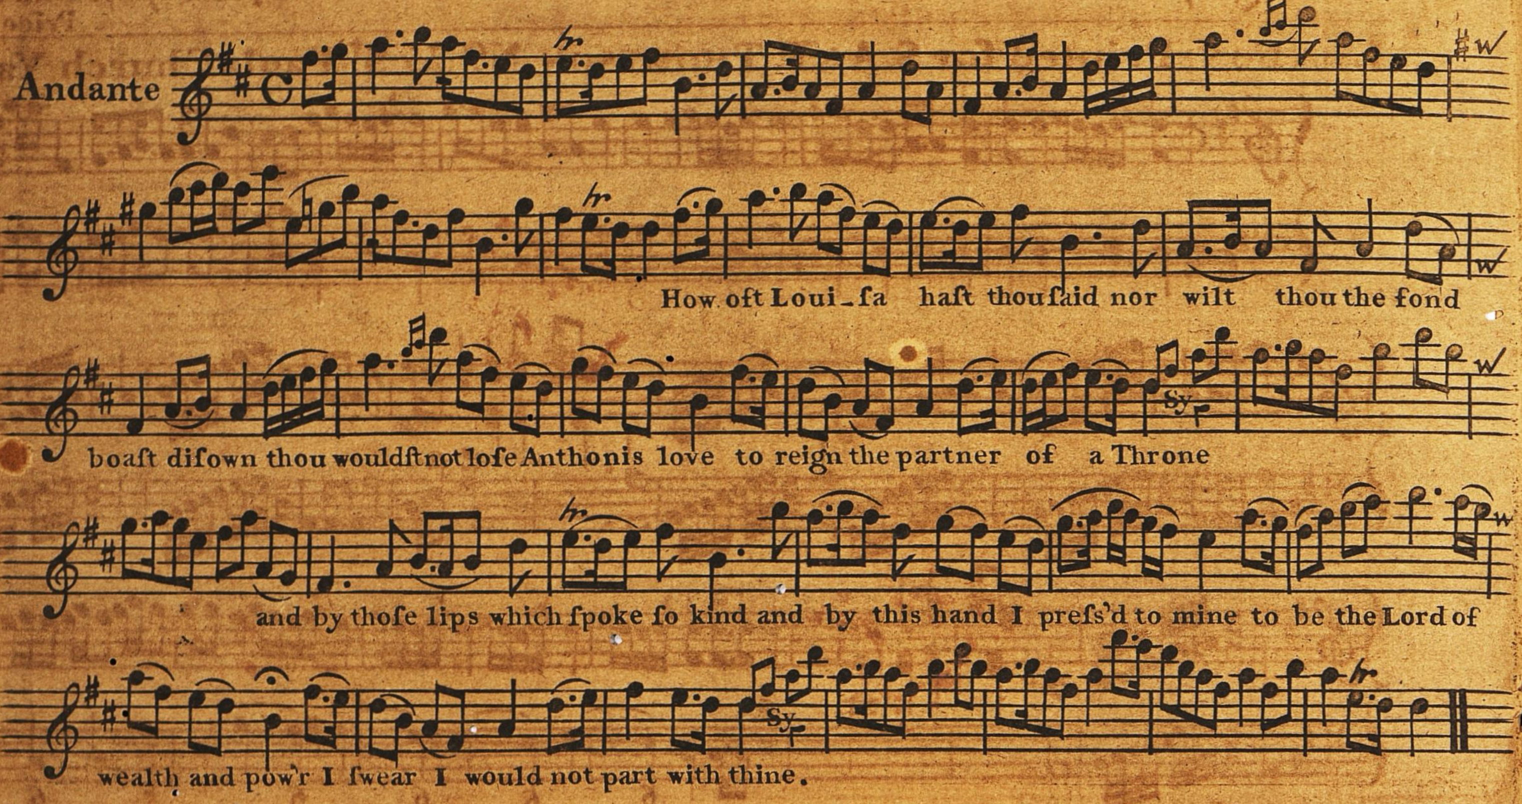
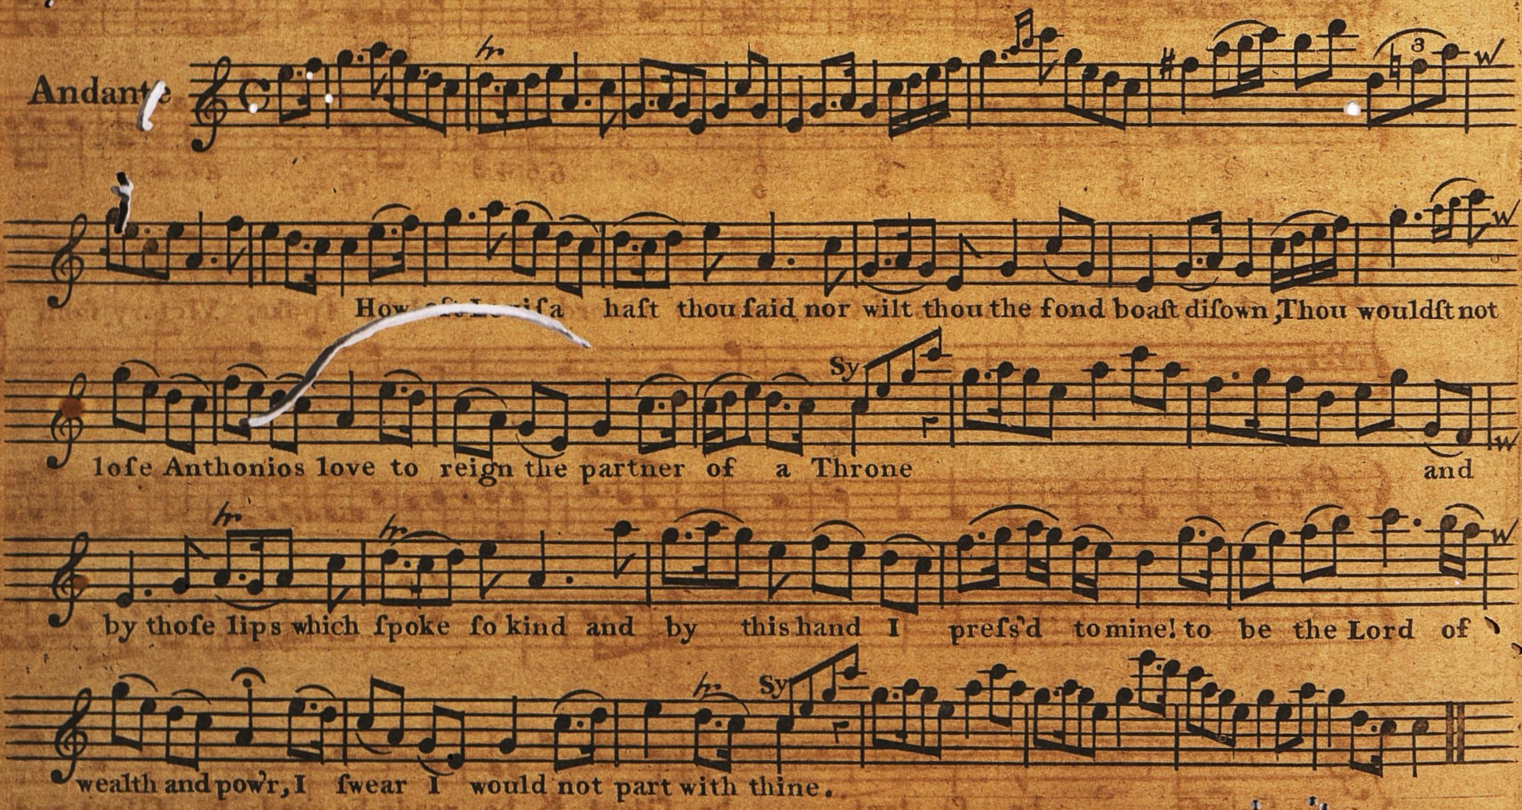
Then how my Soul can we be poor
Who own what kingdoms could not buy!
Of this true heart thou shalt be Queen
And serving thee a Monarch I.

2
Thus uncontroul'd in mutual bliss
And rich in loves exhaustless Mine
Do thou snatch treasures from my lips,
And I'll take Kingdoms back from thine!

For the Ger: Flute



For the Guittar



Then how my Soul can we be poor
Who own what kingdoms could not buy!
Of this true heart thou shalt be Queen,
And serving thee — a Monarch I.

Thus uncontroul'd in mutual bliss
And rich in love's exhaustless Mine
Do thou snatch treasures from my lips,
And I'll take Kingdoms back from thine.
